

NCCC
2014-2015
Year In Review

Byron N6NUL, VP/CC

Tell 'em What You're Gonna Tell 'em

- 2014 NAQP Club Challenge
- 2014 Sweepstakes
- 2015 NAQP Club Challenge
- The Bad News
- The Good News

2014 NAQP Club Challenge

- NCCC Came 3rd
 - Also known as last
- Participation was down year over year
 - This is the root cause of last place finishes
- Results, for Your Review
 - First Place: PVRC, 1,374,342,967 points, 434 participants
 - Second Place: SMC, 1,097,876,133 points, 393 participants
 - Third Place: NCCC, 1,070,524,319 points, 368 participants

2014 Sweepstakes

- Voted on as our Primary Focus
 - The survey was poor. That was my fault
- Sweepstakes Fatigue Syndrome™ Still In Effect
 - I knew it was unpopular. I didn't know how much
- Participation was Down, year over year
 - We will probably come in 3rd behind PVRC and SMC
 - This is the root cause of last place finishes
- Bright Side!
 - I don't think PVRC met their participation goals either

2015 NAQP Club Challenge

- NCCC Invented this Contest
- Jack Brindle, W6FB Worked Hard
- Participation was down, year over year
 - 190 vs 165 participants
 - 724,265,230 vs 457,159,318 points
 - This is the root cause of last place finishes
- Bright Side!
 - PVRC and SMC are down this year, too

The Bad News

- Enthusiasm is Down
 - Meeting Attendance
 - JUG Articles
- Participation is Down
 - Contests
 - JUG Articles

The Good News

- Nothing is Wrong That Cannot be Fixed
 - Help out the Incoming Team of Officers
- Write an Article
- Answer a Question
- Attend a Meeting
- Work an NCCCer in a Contest

Tell 'em What you Told 'em

- We Did Not Win Contests
 - Participation was the root cause of last place finishes
- Other clubs had participation reduction, too
 - Just not as much
- Nothing is Wrong We Cannot Fix
 - Just need to find a little enthusiasm!